

Dr. Mohamed Rehan Sayeed.
MBBS, MD [Bos], MD [Cleav] FRCS [Edin]
Cardiothoracic & Vascular Surgeon

Areas of Special Interest:

- Minimally Invasive Cardiac Surgery
- Heart Failure Surgery
- Mitral Valve repair procedures
- Artificial heart devices and heart transplantation surgery
- OPCAB- Total arterial revascularization
- Management of sick ventricles
- Aortic aneurysm surgery
- Heart Transplantation and ventricular assist devices
- Thoracic Oncology
- Tracheal reconstructive Surgery

Dr. Rehan Sayeed comes with a vast experience of over 6000 cardiac and over 2500 thoracic surgeries. He completed his undergraduate medical education at the Madras Medical College, Chennai. He graduated in 1994. He received his license to practice in 1989 and proceeded to the United Kingdom for further surgical training.

He received his FRCS from the Royal College of Edinburgh in 1999. He further completed his DNB in Cardio Thoracic surgery from Delhi in 2002. During the period of 2002-2004 he completed his fellowship in Cardiothoracic surgery at the Boston University Medical Centre, Boston, USA and followed this up with an MD fellowship in Heart Failure and Assist devices, from the Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Cleveland, Ohio which he completed in 2006.

His training in the included various aspects of adult cardiac surgery and general thoracic surgery.

He is licensed to practice in India, the state of Massachusetts, USA and the state of Ohio, USA.

He has authored and co-authored more than 100 publications in general, vascular, and transplantation surgery in various international journals.

He has presented papers at many national and international conferences and has been an invited faculty for many scientific gatherings.

He is a member of the Cardiothoracic Surgery Network, affiliate member of the American College of Chest physicians, member of the Royal College of surgeons of Edinburgh, and a Cleveland Clinic Alumni.

He is currently the head of the Cardiothoracic Surgery Department at Apollo Hospitals, Bangalore.